DB Sigma™ licences e-Zsigma™ for their Six Sigma training curriculum.

Fort Erie, ON – October 1, 2001 – Canadian-based DB Sigma Inc., (www.dbsigma.ca), has chosen e-Zsigma™ to provide the foundation for its Six Sigma training program.

Under a special licencing arrangement, DB Sigma will use the comprehensive e-Zsigma™ curriculum to provide Six Sigma training to their clients.

DB Sigma Inc. was formed to bring Six-Sigma and Lean Thinking to the small and medium business sectors, and are a total solutions provider, offering services ranging from full-scale implementations to specialist training and mentoring of your employees. Each implementation is tailored to meet their customer's needs.

With offices in Boston, Wichita, and Toronto, and supported by an international team of Six Sigma, Lean, and management specialists, e-Zsigma™ delivers a comprehensive suite of products, consulting, and training services that enable organizations to achieve "best in class" performance.

e-Zsigma's technology group, with the launch of the first web-enabled Six Sigma Enterprise Solution in 2000, continue to support the Six Sigma technology requirements of our customers.

For additional information on e-Zsigma or the products that they offer visit their Web site at <http://www.e-zsigma.com> or call (416) 593-8026.
